From air conditioners to MRI scanners and from bicycles to frozen foods, modern life would be unimaginable without the work of inventors. Unlike other resources on inventions, Inventors and Inventions surprises readers with its wide-ranging exploration of inventors of the past and present, including the creators of Kevlar, Coca Cola, eBay, and the Global Positioning System.

Consists of the general report of the military governor and a varying number of "functional reports" (with special title pages and separate paging) a few of which are "confidential" or "restricted". Beginning with April 1946, these functional reports are bimonthly and alternated, so that approximately half of them appear each month.
