painting process itself. Allowing the structure of the canvases and the materiality of the paint greater freedom to inform the development of her compositions, the artist has likened the creation of these works to the act of falling in love: an unpredictable and open-ended process that is as filled with awkwardness and anxiety as it is with bliss and discovery. Myths & Mortals documents a selection of new paintings—debuted in the spring of 2018 at David Zwirner, New York—ranging from monumental nude figures to intimately scaled canvases that present details of bodily parts and facial features.

Several nearly ten-foot-tall paintings focus on individual figures, including a number of male and female nudes and a seemingly solemn bride, whose expression is obscured behind a floor-length veil. Like the Greek gods and goddesses, the figures in these paintings are at once larger than life and overwhelmingly human. The smaller-scale paintings—referred to by the artist as “erotic landscapes”—present a variety of fragmentary images: eyes, lips, nipples, or lovers locked in a kiss. Evident across all of these works is the artist’s uniquely sensitive treatment of the human form and her constantly evolving experimentation with color and texture. Alongside these new paintings, Dumas presents an expansive series of thirty-two works on paper originally created for a Dutch translation of William Shakespeare's narrative poem Venus & Adonis (1593) by Hafid Bouazza (2016). Myths & Mortals is accompanied by new scholarship on the artist by Claire Messud and a text by Dumas herself.

capitoli più caratteristici, duraturi e affascinanti dell'arte moderna: come gli artisti hanno usato la pittura per registrare le loro esperienze di vita personali, sensuali, immediate e spesso intense. 0Ripercorrendo l'intero XX secolo, questa storia presenta un gruppo di pittori diversi, ma tra loro collegati, che si concentra sulla rappresentazione della figura umana e del paesaggio quotidiano che hanno abitato. Nonostante le loro grandi differenze, tutti questi artisti condividevano uno sguardo altrettanto intenso e scrutatore, rimanendo fedeli alla ricerca

Kitaj, Leon Kossoff, Paula Rego, F.N.
