This book explores
the phenomenon of Independence Days.

These rituals had complex meanings
both in the territories concerned and in Britain as the imperial metropole, where they were extensively
reported in the press.
The text is concerned with the political
management,

associated rhetoric
and iconography of
these seminal celebrations. The focus is therefore very much on political culture in a broad sense, and changing perceptions
and presentations over time. Highlights of the book include an overview by David Cannadine relating

the topic to

ornamentation,

transitions in British culture. Although the book is mainly concerned with the British Empire, Martin
Shipway – a leading historian and cultural analyst of French
decolonization –
contributes an acute summary of how the same 'moment' was handled differently in the other great European empires. There are detailed and lively studies by noted specialists of the immediate coming of Independence to India/Pakistan, Malaya, Ghana, Zimbabwe, and Guyana. The book focus on the important role of representatives of the British monarchy in
