Buying is one of the most important roles in the retail and consumer sector. It is the buyers who decide what products the company is going to sell, and from where it is going to be sourced. Whether a supermarket stocks mangos from Brazil, or beef from Japan, it will be the buyers who made the decision.

planning the buying and selling of the right products, at the right place, right time, in the correct quantities, to the correct customer and at the correct price. However, it isn't an easy topic to get your head around and that's largely due to the fact that the subject matter is littered with specialised terminology, concepts, jargon, acronyms, etc.

~~Retail Merchandising—Management Study Guide~~

Merchandise Buying involves sourcing goods from vendors and wholesalers at the best possible cost to achieve maximum profitability. Merchandise Buying and Planning work hand in hand as the buyer must understand the merchandise financial plan and what products will drive sales in that category. A buyer must be fiscally responsible ensuring they are purchasing goods in line with their seasonal plans (prior to the season) and the Open to Buy (in-season).
